

Five Great Reasons to EXPLORE A CARING CAREER

1 IT'S IMPORTANT, FULFILLING WORK.

- You can make a difference in the lives of others.
- Working in a health care or social assistance position can connect you with others in a unique way and these positions can be a lot of fun.

2 THERE ARE LOTS OF JOB OPENINGS.

- There are many health care and social assistance positions available now.
- There will be many jobs available well into the future! Nearly 58,000 new jobs are expected to be added in health care and social assistance over the next decade in Minnesota, in addition to hundreds of thousands of openings when people retire or leave this field.

3 YOU CAN START BEFORE YOU FINISH HIGH SCHOOL.

- Many in-demand health care and social assistance positions can be started with a high school diploma/equivalent or less.
- Many employers provide training when you begin work – so you can learn while you earn.
- Many employers provide flexible schedules so you can work around school and activities.

4 YOU'LL DEVELOP VALUABLE SKILLS AND CAN CLIMB THE CAREER LADDER.

- Entry-level jobs can be a stepping stone to higher level positions.
- You can climb the career ladder – and make more money – in a caring career with additional training and certification, in many cases with little or no cost to you.
- Many employers offer free on-the-job training, internships, certifications and scholarships.

5 YOU CAN FIGURE OUT IF A CARING CAREER IS RIGHT FOR YOU – AND GET PAID WHILE DOING IT.

- Explore what it's like to work in health care or social assistance in a real-world setting.
- Take the skills you gain in health care or social assistance and go anywhere.

Take a moment to find out more about working in the health care and social assistance field. Many entry level jobs can be started while you are in high school – and you can get paid while figuring out if a career in health care or social assistance is right for you!

Learn more by talking with a CareerForce representative. Find contact info for a CareerForce location near you at CareerForceMN.com/locations

OR contact this local employer directly:

Name of Employer: _____

Phone number and/or email address: _____

Website: _____

How to apply: _____

